Here are 5 do's and 5 don'ts for responsible social media use as a college student:

✅ Do's

1. Think before you post
   Ask yourself if your post could harm your reputation, relationships, or future opportunities.
2. Protect your privacy
   Keep personal information (address, phone number, schedules) limited and use privacy settings wisely.
3. Be respectful and kind
   Treat others online the way you would in real life—avoid arguments, hate speech, or trolling.
4. Verify information before sharing
   Check facts from reliable sources to avoid spreading misinformation.
5. Balance your time
   Use social media in moderation so it doesn't affect your studies, sleep, or mental health.

❌ Don'ts

1. Don't overshare personal details
   Posting too much can put your safety and privacy at risk.
2. Don't engage in cyberbullying
   Avoid negative comments, harassment, or public shaming.
3. Don't post inappropriate content
4. involving substance abuse, offensive language, or risky behaviour can damage your image.
5. Don't compare yourself constantly
   Socia media often shows highlight reels, not reality—avoid unhealthy comparisons.
6. Don't ignore your digital footprint
   Remember that what you post online can stay there permanently and be seen by employers or institutions.
